Since 2018, eight Newman Catholic Students have opened their hearts and followed God's call to be a missionary with the FOCUS program. Hannah Camposeo is our most recent graduate preparing to serve college students. Hannah will be serving on the campus of St. Francis University in Loretta, Pennsylvania beginning in August.

"I got involved in FOCUS right off the bat my freshman year. My first Sunday here, I was trying to sneak my way out of Mass without having to talk to people because I was scared. I remember getting so close to exiting the building, almost to freedom, when a FOCUS missionary named Monica ran up and introduced herself to me. She was super sweet and so excited to meet me and invited me to get coffee. Now if you know me at all, I am absolutely OBSESSED with coffee, so of course I said yes. That next week, we got coffee together and then she invited me into her Bible study where I ended up meeting some of my closest friends in college. Through Bible study with Monica, and later, in discipleship with another student, Grace, I truly grew in love with Jesus Christ and was convicted of His deeply personal and intimate desire to have a relationship with me."
